

STELLANTIS N.V.

Policy on Bilateral Contacts with Shareholders

1 INTRODUCTION

This is the policy of Stellantis N.V. (“SNV”) in respect of bilateral contacts with shareholders in accordance with best practice provision 4.2.2 of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code.

2 CONTACTS WITH SHAREHOLDERS

- 2.1 SNV is committed to maintaining an open and constructive dialogue with its shareholders and potential shareholders. Conversations with shareholders, both in general meetings and on a bilateral basis, form an integral part of this dialogue.
- 2.2 SNV’s policy is to provide all shareholders and other parties in the financial markets with equal and simultaneous information about matters that may influence the share price.
- 2.3 SNV will take into consideration all requests from shareholders to enter into a conversation. SNV will agree to such requests for those situations where SNV’s board of directors deems this in SNV’s interest. The initiative to enter into a conversation with a shareholder can also be taken by SNV.
- 2.4 In order to assess whether a conversation with shareholders could be in SNV’s interest, SNV may request shareholders to provide certain (written) information. This information can include the goal of the conversation, the matters to be discussed, the opinion of the shareholders on these matters and information in respect of the shareholder and its interest in SNV.
- 2.5 SNV adheres to all legal obligations relating to price sensitive information and equal treatment of shareholders and does not discuss material or price sensitive information that is not publicly known in one-on-one meetings.
- 2.6 SNV’s policy is that, where possible, at each conversation with a shareholder at least two SNV representatives should be present.
- 2.7 Among other items, a trading update is provided at SNV’s annual general shareholders’ meetings and may be provided towards the end of the financial year through interim management statements. In addition, briefings on annual and interim results may be distributed via a press release and presented to analysts and investors through accessible conference calls, webcasts and presentations.
- 2.8 The interim and annual financial results announcements, presentations, certain regulatory filings, other important announcements, and corporate governance documents concerning SNV, are published on SNV’s corporate website, www.stellantis.com.
- 2.9 Inside information relating to the Company shall be disclosed with due care and in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.
